

Lonsdale School Home Learning Guidance 2019-2020

Class	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
BumbleBee	Reading with an adult/sibling every day. At the beginning of each half term, pupils will take home a 'homework pack' of games/activities they can work through to support their topic learning.
Owl	Reading *once a week pupils will be set alternate letters & sounds/maths/topic	Reading	Reading	Reading	Reading
Koala	Reading Spellings Weekly task based on subject taught	Reading	Reading	Reading	Reading
Wombat	Reading can be encouraged every night. Students will receive a weekly task to complete in one of their subjects.
Sea Turtle	Reading can be encouraged every night. Students will receive a weekly task to complete in one of their subjects.
Gorilla	Reading can be encouraged every night. Students will receive a weekly task to complete in one of their subjects.
Vaquita	Reading Horizon Targets	Reading	Reading	Reading	Reading Horizon Targets
Hippo	Reading can be encouraged every night. Students will receive a weekly task to complete in one of their subjects.
Tasmanian Devil	Reading	Reading	Science Completion of classwork, if needed	English Completion of classwork, if needed	Maths
Panda	GCSE English task 45 mins/1 hour	Functional Skills – Spellings and reading homework weekly		Biology/ASDAN task approx. 45 mins/1 hour	Maths task approx. 45 mins/1 hour
Elephant	English - Reading / Reading Comprehension 2 x a week			New Horizon Targets
Lynx	English - Reading / Reading Comprehension 2 x a week			Numeracy task

- Home learning deadline is a week from date set; unless stated otherwise by the teacher
- Amount and type of home learning set is based on each pupil's individual needs and is set by the class teacher/subject teacher

NB: It is not a statutory requirement for Early Years pupils to be set homework; homework is set at the teacher's discretion