

Hertfordshire Adult and Family Learning Service (HAFLS) is part of Hertfordshire County Council and provides learning opportunities for adults, young people and families across the county.

HAFLS aim to give all Hertfordshire residents, whatever their age or background, the chance to learn and develop further skills in a safe and supportive environment.

HAFLS run courses such as English and maths for parents. HAFLS also runs courses for those working with children such as Paediatric First Aid, Emergency First Aid and Becoming a Classroom Helper or Learning Assistant.

Have a look at the HAFLS 2017-2018 prospectus and get in touch to see how you can be upskilled by attending fun courses by calling: 01992 556194 or emailing: hafls@hertfordshire.gov.uk
